

Our Sandlin Team offers vast experience in the Real Estate markets of Marco Island & South Naples. In addition, our team personally lives in the communities we market from the beach & waterways of Marco Island to the booming South Naples country club communities of Fiddlers Creek, Lely, Divosta.. We are very knowledgeable about the local boating, fishing, golf, tennis, birding, the arts, & the community amenities as well as the real estate. It would be our pleasure to share our expertise and be your personal consultants in helping you discover the lifestyle of your dreams!

Our business is anchored in the satisfaction of our past clients & their referrals. Nothing makes us prouder and happier than letters from our buyers and sellers such as these which we have recently received:

"I am writing this letter to express my appreciation of the outstanding and professional job that Linda and Alan did on my behalf selling my oceanfront condo . . . everything was handled flawlessly and meticulously. Their attention to every detail was very refreshing and impressive . . . Never have I come across a couple with such honesty and sincere enthusiasm in the job they do. I wish I could have Linda and Alan handle all of my property sales throughout the country."

Dick Hanson, President, MVP Communications, Inc.

"We worked with the Sandlin Team for well over a year and would highly recommend them for their professionalism and their sincere concern for our well-being. This statement includes everyone from the Sandlin Team. They are the best Real Estate group we have ever worked with in our 60 some years. It's all true!"

Mary Jo & Jim Bickley

"Thanks for the great job you and your team did for us. Communications were truly remarkable. The quality of your promotional material was outstanding, and we were never concerned about the many details which had to be addressed being efficiently taken care of. Not only did nothing fall through the "crack", it seemed like you were always one up on what was coming next. We always felt your presence very near and you were always there when we needed you. Your patient understanding was a great help to us. This was our tenth move involving realtors, and was without any doubt the best experience we have ever had. As a former vice president of marketing, your concepts of customer service were most impressive to me and I congratulate you. Most important was your honesty in all things."

Tom Smith

"Dear Sandlin Team, We are extremely pleased with our entire real estate transaction. The communication, advertising, sale, "hand-holding" and final closing far exceeded all our expectations."
