

Apostle Tracy Gibson is the founder and director of DONE UNTO THE LORD MINISTRIES – under the Apostolic covering of “Reach For The World Ministries” – Dr. Margaret J. Gibson, Overseer. She is currently under the watch care of “ARM of the Lord Ministries”, Pastors Robert & Rheda Brown. Apostle Gibson is the owner and proprietor of DONE UNTO THE LORD ‘Occasions & Events by Tracy’, a Christian event planning corporation. She is also, the founder and director of REVEALED Dance Ministry & Academy – a dance ministry anointed to REVEAL the glory of the Lord to the nations and teach those that have been called to the ministry of dance. Apostle Gibson is the visionary and founder of For His Glory Worship Center, Mechanicsville Virginia. Apostle Tracy has found refuge, healing and power in the ministry of worshiping God in the dance, and has been gifted to teach others. Apostle Gibson has also birth the mentorship program of Judah Kingdom Connection, mothering sons and daughters across the nation in the Gospel and ministry.

Apostle Gibson holds a Bachelor’s Degree in Psychology and Social Science from Troy State University; a Masters of Divinity with a concentration in Practical Theology & Worship from Regent University. Apostle Gibson has worked toward her Doctoral Degree in Christian Counseling from Freedom Bible College and Seminary – but placed it on hold as she continues to constantly travel preaching, teaching and ministering in dance. Apostle Tracy was called and licensed to preach the Gospel in June of 2003 as an evangelist and ordained in June 2006. The office of Apostle was confirmed and conferred upon her in October 2009.

Apostle Gibson has over ten years of experience in the field of counseling. She began counseling with the Department of the Air Force as a government contactor with the Family Advocacy Program, working with spousal and child abuse victims. She has also served active duty with the United States Army as a Personnel Specialist. Before being called to ministry full-time, she also worked with the Department of Veterans Affairs as a Counselor, counseling our nations disabled veterans.

Apostle Tracy has volunteered in ministry in a number of areas to include outreach ministry to the Rappahannock Juvenile Detention Center, Brooke Nursing Home, Virginia Department of Social Services’ Adopt a Family Thanksgiving and Christmas programs, ACTS Homeless and Transitional Living programs, and is very active in witnessing salvation through Jesus Christ to the lost. As an evangelist she has been active in the past with the Jubilee Campaign & Just Law, helping the persecuted church in countries such as Asia, Indonesia, Pakistan, China and Northern Korea, and defending human rights for those who dare preach the gospel on foreign soil. Apostle Gibson is a leader, a teacher, a powerful minister of the dance and anointed minister of the word of God. She is effective and valuable to the Kingdom, helping many to walk into their God ordained purpose.

Apostle Gibson currently resides in Tappahannock, VA with her three children: Jillian (away attending The College of William & Mary), Jeremy and Ja`Kayla. She loves to praise and worship God and serve Him through serving others. She firmly believes in equipping the saints to walk in their God breathed purpose. Apostle Tracy’s favorite scriptures are 1 Chronicles 29: 10-13 and Isaiah 40: 3-5.
