

Residential Estimator - Contract Housing

- ➡ South Brisbane Location
- ➡ Stable and reputable company
- ➡ Competitive Salary Package

Working within the second plus home buyer's market, this company is award winning; with beautiful designs, a design book that is innovative, can suit the needs of most of their clients and a place for you!

Are you looking for the middle ground between the tedium of estimating project homes and the D & C world with the fussy, mind changing clients? This is your answer!!

Working within the estimating team you will be responsible for looking after several client files at any one time.

You will need to have:

Excellent construction knowledge (either come from the trades, construction management degree or been a residential estimator within a reputable Australian building company).

You will also possess time management skills and combine speed and accuracy along with a sense of humour and great communication skills.

If you are ready to trade in your old environment/manager/company/salary and move on up, this is your opportunity.
